Memorandum for all Lodges and Member of the Grand Lodge of Washington

Subject: Lewis Jewel

Brethren:

To honor the lineage of Masonry in a family. You can now order up to five bars total for the Masons in the family lineage on the Lewis Jewel for Washington State Masons.

Here are the standards:

- The order will be placed through the Lodge Secretary.
- The membership of all Brothers will be verified by the Grand Lodge Office.
- The initiation date is the date used on the Lewis Jewel.
- Each Bar will have the Brothers name and Initiation Date for each Mason.
- The Son must be in good standing and the ancestors were Master Masons in a Regular Lodge.
- An EA or FC can order the Lewis Jewel but must follow the custom of the Lodge as to when he can wear it.
- ONLY the Son is authorized to wear the Jewel in honor of his Masonic ancestors. His name will be on the last bar.

The cost for the Lewis Jewel is:

Two Bars - $40.00 - $35.00 plus $5.00 S&H
Three Bars - $50.00 - $45.00 plus $5.00 S&H
Four Bars - $60.00 - $55.00 plus $5.00 S&H
Five Bars - $70.00 - $65.00 plus $5.00 S&H

If you already have purchased a Lewis Jewel you can order extra bars to add to your Jewel. Remember the Son's name goes on the lowest bar.

Extra Bars $15.00 each - $10.00 plus $5.00 S&H.

All payments will be made to the Grand Lodge of Washington.
